Overview:

The 2nd World Congress on Gynecology, Obstetrics & Women's Health (Gynecology 2027) will be held on September 22-24, 2027, in Barcelona, Spain, as a hybrid international congress, offering participants the flexibility to attend in person or online.

The congress brings together gynecologists, obstetricians, physicians, researchers, academicians, midwives, healthcare professionals, and industry experts to exchange knowledge and explore the latest developments in gynecology, obstetrics, and women's health. The scientific program covers maternal-fetal medicine, reproductive health, fertility and infertility, gynecologic oncology, reproductive endocrinology, minimally invasive gynecologic surgery, obstetric care, high-risk pregnancy, urogynecology, neonatal health, and emerging advances in women's healthcare.

Call for Papers

Participants are invited to showcase their research and discoveries by submitting abstracts for consideration in the scientific sessions. A standardized submission template is available on the Abstract Submission page of the conference website. Accepted abstracts will be included in the extended abstract book, which will be available online and distributed to attendees.
